

Expression, Communication, and
Origins of Meaning Research Group Presents

Kinds of Expression

February 5, 2022

3rd ECOM Graduate Conference
University of Connecticut

Keynote Speakers:

Prof. Henrike Moll (Psychology, University of Southern California)

Prof. Eli Alshanetsky (Philosophy, Temple University)

The aim of “Kinds of Expression” is to generate interdisciplinary discussion on varieties or types of expression that are of interest to philosophers, psychologists, linguists, and anthropologists (among others). We encourage contributions that discuss the notion of expression as it has been used in different domains.

For detailed information and abstract submission (Deadline: December 15),
